

Reverend Ashley Ramsey is a remarkably talented young lady. She is an author, entrepreneur, educator, conference host, and evangelist.

Having grown up in a home of preachers, the path was made clear to Ashley from a young age that she was called to preach. Although challenging at times, Ashley persevered through living in the limelight as others were watching closely. Her parents, Dr. Jonathan Ramsey, Jr., and Reverend LaVerne Ramsey, raised her to be God fearing, and affirmed that she was set apart to make a difference in this generation. Ashley answered the call upon her life as a teenager.

Ashley holds a Bachelors in Elementary Education, with minors in Psychology and Theology, from Lee University in Cleveland, Tennessee. While at Lee, Ashley served as a Chaplain for two years, and has worked in various other capacities within the church. She also holds a Masters of Education from the University of Hartford in Connecticut, and has completed extensive coursework through the Hartford Seminary in Hartford, Connecticut to further her knowledge and understanding in theology. She is currently a certified teacher, preparing a group of brilliant students for their bright future.

Reverend Ashley has traveled extensively throughout the United States and other countries including: Ghana, West Africa, Guatemala, Haiti, US Virgin Islands, and Ukraine preaching and teaching the Word of God.

Currently, Ashley serves as Ministry Leader for Rooted Young Adult Ministry at Rehoboth Church of God. Ashley is a true pioneer for her generation, and has founded several networks and conferences that offer engagement and development for youth and young adults across the region. She is the founder of the Young Preachers Network, a ministry that encourages and uplifts young preachers and leaders, and hosts the Giant Slayers Conference each Fall. She is also Founder of Flawless Young Ladies, a mentorship and empowerment platform for girls and young adult women.

Called, ordained, and commissioned by God for such a time as this, Reverend Ashley is an anointed preacher and teacher with a passion to penetrate the hearts of God's people and minister to souls on every level. Her knowledge of the Word through the revelation of the Holy Spirit will challenge and change your life forever. She is a servant after God's own heart, whose sole desire is to please God and glorify the name of Jesus.
